

Mr. Rodgers joins Sacred Heart Cathedral School from Knoxville Catholic High School where he has taught English III AP, Honors, and College Preparatory courses while serving as the 11th Grade Disciplinarian. He has fourteen years of teaching, coaching and administrative experience in middle school, high school, and college settings. Prior to working at Knoxville Catholic, he was the Interim Assistant Upper School Principal at St. David's School in Raleigh, NC. While there, he also served as the 11th grade chair, worked in school marketing and advancement, coached basketball and launched the school's alumni magazine, serving as its initial copy editor. He holds an M.A. from the University of Dallas and is a recipient of the prestigious Peabody Honor's Scholarship at Vanderbilt University where he is set to complete his M.Ed. in Independent School Leadership in July of this year. He is married to his wife of ten years, Rachel, and is the proud father of Catherine Clare.